Overview

The student development programme (SDP) is organized to provide each student with the opportunity to grow and reach their potential by developing the knowledge, skills, and ability that will help make a difference in their career. The SDP envisages to help students to identify their present potential and improve on their shortcomings while simultaneously improving application-oriented learnings about the course. The second SDP for MBA I Semester 1 was based on the CCE- Role play/Presentations. The theme was "Catch Me if you Can". The students were guided to

Objective

- To give application-oriented learnings to the students
- To develop research and analytical skills of the students
- To improve presentation & communication skills.
- To improve team work & leadership skills.

The judges for this SDP were:

- Dr. Jaysri Murali
- Mr. Ketan Gandhi

Summary

SDP -2 for MBA I Sem I students was on the theme "Catch me if you can". The SDP activity is conducted every fortnight and is a group activity. The SDP is part of Concurrent Internal Evaluation (CIE), and Comprehensive Concurrent Evaluation (CCE) methods, as suggested by SPPU syllabus, are used in the SDP. The present SDP was based on the CCE- Role Play/ Presentations. This SDP was aligned to the Generic Core course- Economic Analysis and Business Decisions. Nine teams were declared and each team was assigned one scam. These teams had to present the details of the scam as well as the impact of these scams on the economy. It was a group activity and each group had to perform a Role Play on the given Topic with Power-point Presentation in the Backdrop. The students were informed about the rationale for evaluating the groups and rubrics were shared well in advance. The time limit for Presentation - 15 min. (12 min. for presentation and 03 min. for Q&A).

The following scams were taken into consideration in this SDP:

1. 2G Spectrum Scam
2. Commonwealth Games
3. Telgi Scam
4. Satyam Scam
5. IPL Scam
6. Bofors Scam
7. Harshad Mehta Scam
8. Cobbler Scam
9. Hawala Scandal

The students were evaluated based on the following parameters

- Background of the Case
- Characters or Key Players in the Scam
- Shortcomings in the system
- Event which has triggered the Fraud/ Scam
- Financial Loss to the Exchequer
- Event / Incident which has brought the Scam into the limelight
- Learnings to the Exchequer
- Measures to control or avoid such type frauds in future

This SDP was conducted offline at IICMR auditorium. The SDP started at 1.30pm. The judges sequentially announced the teams for presentation. Approximately 87 students participated in this SDP

Winners:

The winning team was 'The lateral Thinkers'

Outcome:

- The students did in-depth research about the scams that improved their research skills
- The students were able to present the economic implications of the scam.

Conclusion

This was the second SDP for MBA I students and the first offline SDP. However the students displayed good presentation skills. The students were delighted to present on stage and were overwhelmed by the insights given by the judges.

SPPU syllabus, are used in the SDP. The present SDP was based on the CCE- Model Making. This SDP was aligned to the Generic Core courses- Business Research Methods, Basics of Marketing, Digital Business. The students were required to make and present working models on given topic. The topics were assigned to different groups through draw of lots in front of the faculty mentors. The themes allocated were based on the sustainable development goals, the themes assigned were:

1. Quality Education
2. Energy
3. Mobility
4. Health & Wellness.

The students were guided on the rationale for model making which included the following:

- ✓ Define the problem
- ✓ Identify the criteria you will use to Judge the problem
- ✓ Generate a list of possible alternatives
- ✓ Evaluate those alternatives
- ✓ Determine the best solution
- ✓ Prepare a Prototype

The concepts of the course Business Research Methods enabled the research on the given theme and identification of problem through literature review.

The learning from the course Basics of Marketing enabled the use of 9Ps of marketing mix for communicating the Value offering to the target market and reshaping the offering to serve the predefined Market more effectively and efficiently.

3. Outcomes of Activity:

1. The students will develop skills to face online interview which includes knowing various online platform for interview, body language ,dressing sense, effective communication and choosing the right atmosphere.
2. The students will develop effective email writing skills.

4. Description of the Study:

1. How to handle the interview in online mode.
2. How to write the emails effectively.

This was first EEP session conducted by Ms. Neha Bhosale. The session consists of knowing various application for online mode of interview. It is very important to choose right atmosphere with no noise to give the interview. Firstly right dressing sense is very important then comes right attitude which includes greeting properly and listening and then conveying the information properly. Most importantly internet, the hardware and software should be in place.
