Description :

During the session, mentors actively engaged in fruitful discussions to enhance the Mentor-Mentee process and amplify the Unique Value Proposition (UVP) of our institute. Firstly, participants emphasized the importance of fostering an environment where mentors and mentees can get to know each other on a deeper level, facilitating trust and open communication essential for a successful mentoring relationship.

Secondly, considerable attention was given to deciding the name of the group, recognizing the significance of a cohesive identity in strengthening the Mentor-Mentee bond and fostering a sense of belonging within the community. Discussions also revolved around identifying parameters to be strictly avoided during Mentor-Mentee interactions. In terms of enhancing mentees' overall progress, participants explored various approaches, including providing personalized guidance, setting achievable goals, and fostering a supportive environment conducive to growth and development.

Lastly, participants delved into the ethical dimension of mentoring, discussing how to uphold ethical standards and integrity while engaging with mentees, emphasizing the importance of confidentiality, respect, and honesty in all interactions.
